Reflecting on Today's Readings

GOD'S HEALING JUSTICE

An old expression holds that the sun-warmed stone heals. Perhaps. But Malachi explains that only dark, sunless days are in store for those who do not find a place for God in their lives. Conversely, he tells us that the warmth and light of God's healing justice await those who love and serve the Lord. That's a pretty comforting notion—especially now in the already short and growing even shorter days of November. It's the sun-warmed stone, and then some. Paul speaks to us of justice as well, but points out that it is not a passive thing. To be treated justly, we need to do our fair share. If we are diligent and persevere we will be rewarded with and by the fruits of our labor. Lastly, Luke, too, tells us to persevere—in faith, this time—and our lives will be secure in God regardless of how we are treated by others. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

Please help us to keep our BEAUTIFUL church clean and neat. Remember to tidy the pews before leaving mass by collecting bulletins, placing books either in racks or at the end of the pews, etc. We greatly appreciate your support and understanding.

A THANK YOU NOTE !!!

On behalf of SS John and James Parish, a faith community, on my behalf as the administrator of this beautiful church, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to the Coordinators of the Bazaar and everyone who helped in so many ways, making this event a total success, one more time.

May God bless you and yours always!!!

REMEMBER OUR LOVED ONES!

Let us remember in our prayers MARY BROUSSEAU and DOLORES BENOIT who have entered into the glory of everlasting life. May our prayers bring comfort to their families.

Attention Eucharistic Ministers, Ministers of the Word and Banking Ministry Members

Schedules were emailed to you. Thank you for your kindness, understanding and the feedback. If you are unable to keep your assignment, kindly contact another member of the ministry to substitute you. As I get more familiar with names and preferences, things will get better for everyone. Extra copies are found at the sacristy in a labeled binder for this purpose. Please take a copy if you need to do so.

May peace, love, compassion and unity fill your hearts always. Cecilia
